

NOV 07 2017

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

JEFFREY P. COLWELL
CLERK

---

IN THE MATTER OF
MARSHALL SCOTT MEYERS

CASE NO. 15-DP-31

---

ORDER OF REINSTATEMENT

---

Before the Disciplinary Panel is the letter of Marshall Scott Meyers, dated August 15, 2017, seeking to have his bar status with the District Court restored to good standing in light of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal's order vacating an order of suspension entered against Mr. Meyers by the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

By letter dated July 21, 2015, Mr. Meyers notified the court in substantial compliance with D.C.COLO.LAttyR 4(a)(2)<sup>1</sup> that the Northern District of Texas suspended him from practice of law for three years, effective June 23, 2015. Although Mr. Meyers noted he was "considering" an appeal of his discipline, his letter did not indicate that he had taken any action towards perfecting an appeal or, more importantly, towards seeking a stay of the disciplinary order pending appeal. Consequently, by automatic operation of the Rule of Good Standing embodied in D.C.COLO.LAttyR 3(c), the Clerk of Court properly downgraded his bar status to "not in good standing," effective June 23, 2015.

<sup>1</sup> Under D.C.COLO.LAttyR 4(a)(2), an attorney must report a suspension no later than 14 days after the date the disciplinary order enters. A failure to timely report a suspension is a separate cause for disciplinary action under D.C.COLO.LAttyR 4(b). Given, however, that Mr. Meyers had no active cases before the court at the time he provided notice and that the disciplinary order ultimately was stayed and vacated by the Fifth Circuit, the Disciplinary Panel waives the de minimis violation of this reporting requirement.

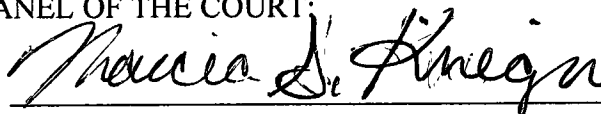

By letter dated May 31, 2017, Mr. Meyers informed the court that he had successfully appealed his order of suspension to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. In response to the May 31, 2017 letter, the Secretary to the Committee on Conduct asked Mr. Meyers to submit a certified copy of the Fifth Circuit's order vacating the suspension and evidence that the Northern District of Texas had lifted its suspension. By letter dated August 15, 2017, Mr. Meyers provided the requested documentation, including a Certificate of Good Standing from the Northern District of Texas.

It is therefore

ORDERED that the Clerk of Court shall reinstate MARSHALL SCOTT MEYERS to the practice of law before the United States District Court for the District of Colorado and shall restore his attorney bar status on the attorney roll to "in good standing," retroactive to the effective date of his suspension, June 23, 2015.

Dated at Denver, Colorado this 3rd day of November, 2017.

Chief Judge Marcia S. Krieger

Judge Philip A. Brimmer

Judge Christine M. Arguello
