

Weapon policy effective February 13, 2025:

Unless otherwise authorized by the Court, no person appearing before United States District Judge Gordon P. Gallagher or United States Magistrate Judge Richard T. Gurley in the Wayne Aspinall Courthouse in Grand Junction, Colorado is allowed to possess any of the following and is subject to screening for:

Weapons, explosives, destructive devices, guns, firearms, tasers, knives (of any length), bladed, edged, or sharp objects, clubs or other striking devices, explosive material, incendiaries, personal protective devices such as mace or pepper spray, or replicas of any of the foregoing.

Any individual who violates this Order is subject to sanctions including removal, refusal of entry, and contempt of court.
