

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

AMENDED STANDING ORDER REGARDING CIVIL PROCEEDINGS
FOR MAGISTRATE JUDGE NINA Y. WANG
(Effective August 16, 2021)

As of August 16, 2021, the public health risks caused by the coronavirus, and in particular, the Delta variant of the coronavirus, continue to be present. In order to support public health efforts to cabin the spread of the coronavirus, to protect the health of the Parties and counsel by minimizing their need to travel, and to protect the health of the general public, the following measures are adopted in an abundance of caution. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

- (1) All proceedings, notwithstanding any evidentiary proceedings, including but not limited to trials, which are scheduled to occur through January 1, 2022, shall be held via telephone conference, unless otherwise ordered by the court. Participants may access this court's conference line by using the following dial-in information: 1-888-363-4749, Access Code 5738976. This Amended Standing Order does not apply to any criminal matters; evidentiary civil matters; or other matters specifically set after the effective date to be in-person, scheduled through January 1, 2022.
- (2) All jury trials scheduled to occur through January 1, 2022 shall proceed as scheduled, pursuant to the District of Colorado's Jury Trial Protocols and its effective General Order(s), available at <http://www.cod.uscourts.gov/CourtOperations/COVID-19Guidance.aspx>.
- (3) Parties and/or counsel are advised to check information on the website of the United States District Court for the District of Colorado (<http://www.cod.uscourts.gov/>) and specifically, for Magistrate Judge Wang, for continuing information.
