VI. SENTENCING COMPUTATION

Defendant understands that sentencing is determined pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). In determining the particular sentence to be imposed, the Court is required to consider seven factors. One of those factors is the sentencing range computed by the Court under advisory guidelines issued by the United States Sentencing Commission. In order to aid the Court in this regard, defendant sets forth below his/her estimate of the advisory guideline range called for by the United States Sentencing Guidelines.

Defendant estimates the advisory guidelines apply as follows:

- A. The applicable guideline is § ____, with a base offense level of _____.
- B. [Insert specific offense characteristics.]
- C. [Insert victim-related, role-in-offense, acceptance of responsibility, obstruction, multiple-count and other Chapter III adjustments.]
- D. The adjusted offense level would be _____.
- E. Defendant's criminal history category is estimated as Category ____.
- F. Assuming the accuracy of the criminal history estimate, the Career Offender guideline and the Armed Career Criminal statute [do / do not] apply.
- G. The advisory guideline range of imprisonment resulting from an offense level of ____ and a criminal history category of ____ is ____ months. In order to be as accurate as possible, with the criminal history category undetermined at this time, the range could conceivably extend from as low as ___ months (bottom of Category I) to as high as ___ months (top of Category VI).

H. Pursuant to guideline § 5E1.2, the fine range for this offense would be $_____ to $_____, plus applicable interest and penalties.

I. Pursuant to guideline § 5D1.2, if the Court imposes a term of supervised release, that term is [insert term or range provided by law].

The United States advises that it agrees (), disagrees (), or takes no position ().
[Check or provide appropriate response].

(Name) understands that although the Court will consider the above estimate, the Court must make its own determination of the guideline range. In doing so, the Court is not bound by any estimate calculated herein, regardless of whether agreed to by the government.

No estimate regarding the guideline range precludes defendant or the government from asking the Court, within the overall context of the guidelines, to depart from the guideline range at sentencing if defendant or the government believes a departure is specifically authorized by the guidelines or that there exists an aggravating or mitigating circumstance of a kind, or to a degree, not adequately taken into consideration by the United States Sentencing Commission in formulating the advisory guidelines. Similarly, no estimate regarding the guideline range precludes Mr. Doe or the government from asking the Court to vary from the advisory guidelines and to impose a non-guideline sentence based on other 18 U.S.C. § 3553 factors.

(Name) understands the Court is free, upon consideration and proper application of all 18 U.S.C. § 3553 factors, to impose a sentence which it deems appropriate in the exercise of its discretion and that such sentence may be less than that called for by the advisory guidelines (in length or form), within the advisory guideline range, or above the advisory guideline range - up to and including imprisonment for the statutory maximum term, regardless of any computation or position of any party.
