

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

IN THE MATTER OF APPOINTMENT TO
THE DISCIPLINARY PANEL

GENERAL ORDER 2011-6

Under the district court's inherent disciplinary powers, and as promulgated by the court's local rules, the Disciplinary Panel is the judicial body with jurisdiction over and responsibility for discipline of members of the court's bar. D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5A, D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7A. The Disciplinary Panel is composed of three district judges, and appointments to the Panel are made by the Chief Judge.

Chief United States District Judge Wiley Y. Daniel and United States District Judge Philip A. Brimmer are the sitting appointed members of the Disciplinary Panel. A vacancy of membership on the Panel occurred on the resignation from the Panel of United States Senior District Judge Walker D. Miller. Accordingly, to institute a full complement of judicial officers in conformity with the District Court's local rules of practice, it is ORDERED that United States District Judge Robert E. Blackburn is hereby appointed as the third member of the Disciplinary Panel, to join Chief United States District Judge Wiley Y. Daniel and United States District Judge Philip A. Brimmer. All three members shall constitute the Disciplinary Panel until otherwise ordered by the Chief Judge.

Dated at Denver, Colorado, this 3rd day of August, 2011.

BY THE COURT:

S/ Wiley Y. Daniel
